PERSONAL ITEMS.

What People are Doing in and Out of Roanoke.

Judge J. M. Gregory, of Chesterfield county, who, with his wife, has been spending a few days with his sister, Mrs. J. R. Hockaday, leaves for home this morning.

Charles Sardin was arrested yesterday for stealing a shirt from A. Baer. He was sent to jail by Squire Howerton for sixty days yesterday.

Postmaster Asberry's new three-story business building on Salem avenue is nearing completion.

James Thompson and James Hurt, negro men, engaged in an affray on Railroad avenue yesterday afternoon, and Thompson was cut in the left breast by Hurt with a penknife. Officer Wolfe arrested the parties and locked them up for a hearing before the mayor this morning.

Messrs. G. Powell Hill and son have removed from Alexandria to Roanoke to reside. They expect to engage in the real estate business.

W. Weatherford, not W. Welford, was the man who passed the bogus check last week.

Every step of progress made in the construction of the new Baptist house of worship shows the touch of master mechanics. As the building rises the unique and tasteful designs of the architect are presented to view.

The Episcopalians of Roanoke are agitating the question of rebuilding their church edifice in some other part of the city.

Allen Hull, general traveling passenger agent of the Norfolk and Western railroad, was in the city yesterday.

MINISTERS AND LAYMEN.

They Meet and Discuss Many Interesting Topics.

The seventy-seventh session of the ministers' and laymen's meeting, held with the Alleghany Baptist Church at Ronold last week, closed its programme on Saturday night.

Prof. C. L. Cooke, Drs. James, Flippo and Tyree, Revs. N. C. Burnett, G. Gray and Samuel Saunders, presented papers on different subjects which elicited lively and profitable discussions. Dr. Jones' paper was an exegesis of Luke, 16th chapter, 9th verse.

Dr. Flippo's subject was: "To what extent should men, not having enjoyed scholastic advantages, be encouraged to enter the ministry?"

Prof. Cooke gave utterance to weighty words in the discussion of "Personal character and labors as compared with the use of money in the support and propagation of religion."

The meeting was profitable every way and the discussions were greatly enjoyed by the congregation in attendance.

MAYOR'S COURT.

Mayor Evans disposed of the following heavy docket yesterday:

E. H. Mays and Walter Hughes, affray on Railroad avenue; Hughes dismissed and Mays fined $5.

W. D. Trent, committing a nuisance, $5.

J. M. Mills, drunk and disorderly, $5.

Ran Wade, Sunday bar, forfeited $20 collateral.

John Clinedinst, performing unnecessary work on Sunday, dismissed.

Charles Morrill, loitering about the depot, $2.

Charles Goens, alias William Harston, disorderly conduct, $2.

Lewis Tucker and George Robinson, fighting on Banker Hill; Tucker dismissed upon his plea of self-defense and attachment issued for the arrest of Robinson.

W. B. Clarke, drunk on Railroad avenue, $5.

J. H. Jennings, drunk and down, $5.

Wilson Rowell, using profane and boisterous language on Railroad avenue, $5.

E. M. Jones, drunk and down, $5.

T. M. Thomas, drunk and disorderly, fifteen days in jail in default of $5 fine.

Money for the New Baptist Church.

The sermon at the Baptist Church Sunday morning was in harmony with the Sunday-school lesson for the day.

"Come see the place where the Lord lay," was Dr. Flippo's text.

The pastor laid another offering on the altar of the new church building, and said he had registered a vow to do this every Sunday morning until the new house of worship was dedicated and paid for.

Within a few days one gentleman has added $1,000 in cash, and many excellent pledges to his subscription list.

At the close of the night service the baptistry was uncovered and five believers were "buried with Christ in baptism."

Dr. Campbell Preached Sunday.

Rev. Dr. W. C. Campbell preached Sunday night at the Presbyterian Church for the first time since his return from Harper's Ferry. At the morning service the church was packed to hear Mr. Painter, of Roanoke College; in the evening every seat was filled.

The pastor preached at night on the final resurrection of the dead. The lesson drawn was that as these same bodies, which will crumble to dust after death and continue for centuries in this world, must finally be resurrected and be the receptacle for the soul in the life, therefore they should be preserved during this life.

Harris Bros. & Stone vs. W. C. Overly, appeal and judgment for plaintiff.

C. T. Minnix vs. G. E. Thomas; appeal and judgment for plaintiff. Judgment subsequently set aside.

THE SHENANDOAH VALLEY.

Mr. Haupt to be General Superintendent of the Motive Power.

The reorganization of the Norfolk and Western office forces will begin about the first of the month, and many changes may be looked for.

Among the contemplated changes may be mentioned the promotion of S. B. Haupt to general superintendent of motive power.

The absorption of the Shenandoah Valley railroad will necessitate the Norfolk and Western motive power department being divided into two divisions.

The eastern division will include what was formerly the Shenandoah Valley and western Lynchburg and Radford divisions of the Norfolk and Western.

This division is to be under the charge of R. P. C. Sanderson.

Mr. Sanderson is at present assistant superintendent of the motive power.

The second division will include the Flat-Top and other divisions West.

Pickpockets Arrested.

R. H. Armistead and C. H. Palmer, two yellow negroes of sporting proclivities, sought to induce Abel Burr to engage in what is known as the shell game on the cars between Salem and Roanoke Saturday night. Burr, as he says, refused to enter into the game, but just after the cars got within the city limits Armistead and Palmer jostled him about for a short time, and then left the cars by different doors. He then discovered that his pocket book, containing $4.70, had disappeared, and he caused their arrest. They will be tried this afternoon before Squire Howerton at 2 o'clock. These parties are suspected of being concerned in several highway robberies at Sandy Springs recently.

Death of a Young Man.

Frank C. Johnson, of Lynchburg, a brother of Secretary Thomas A. Johnson, of the Roanoke Young Men's Christian Association, died Sunday night about 11 o'clock of intermittent fever, after a week's illness.

Mr. Johnson was about 23 years of age and one of the most popular students of Richmond College.

His brother left on the early morning train for Lynchburg to attend the funeral.
